81ST ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE ASSOCIATION OF PHYSICIANS OF INDIA

JANUARY 2026 | PATNA, BIHAR

HOST - API BIHAR CHAPTER

WELCOME TO APICON 2026, PATNA

Dear Friends,

Greetings from Patna, the heart of Bihar—a land steeped in history, culture, and unparalleled heritage! It is with immense pride and honour that we extend our warm invitation to you for the 81st Annual Conference of the Association of Physicians of India, APICON 2026, to be held in this vibrant city Patna, a city that has borne witness to the rise of ancient dynasties and empires, is a testament to the timeless legacy of knowledge and wisdom. Reflecting on the profound words of Yudhisthira in the Mahabharata, "Health Is the greatest gift; knowledge, the noblest treasure," we come together at APICON 2026 to celebrate the essence of medical science and the pursuit of excellence in healthcare.

This premier academic gathering will showcase a meticulously curated scientific program, encompassing cutting-edge research, breakthroughs in clinical practice, and insights across diverse medical disciplines. With an esteemed lineup of National and International speakers, APICON 2026 promises to be an enriching experience for all participants, including our emerging young physicians.

Beyond academic endeavours, APICON 2026 offers an opportunity to immerse yourself in the charm of Patna and Bihar. Discover the serenity of Bodhgaya, the scholarly allure of Nalanda, the spiritual tranquillity of Patna Sahib, and the architectural marvel of the Golghar. Indulge in the rich and flavourful Bihari cuisine, from the rustic delight of litti-chokha to the irresistible sweetness of local delicacies.

True to our tradition of "Atithi Devo Bhava" (The Guest Is God), we are committed to providing you with a memorable experience marked by warm hospitality, camaraderie, and cultural vibrancy. Together, let us make APICON 2026 a celebration of learning, friendship, and the enduring spirit of service.

We eagerly await your presence in Patna, where ancient wisdom meets modern innovation, creating a perfect backdrop for this landmark event.

With kind regards

About the Host City: Patna

The Perfect Blend of History, Culture, and Modernity

Patna, the capital of Bihar, is a city steeped in history and culture. Located on the southern bank of the holy river Ganges, it was historically known as Patliputra, the seat of power during the Magadh and Gupta dynasties, famed for Chanakya's wisdom.

This sacred land has been blessed by illustrious figures such as Aryabhata, Lord Buddha, Lord Mahavira, and Guru Gobind Singh Ji. In more recent times, Mahatma Gandhi initiated the freedom movement from this very state.

Today, Patna is a rapidly developing city, adorned with wide roads, modern flyovers, a burgeoning metro system, and beautiful parks. It is a shining example of communal harmony, where people of all faiths live together in unity and friendliness.

Connectivity

Patna is well-connected by road through the East-West Corridor and serves as a key railway junction on the mainline connecting Howrah and Delhi. Its airport offers excellent connectivity to all major cities in India.

Weather in January

The weather in January in Patna is typically cold, as it is the peak winter season.

Temperature Range: Daytime temperatures usually range between 8°C and 22°C, while nighttime temperatures can drop as low as 4°C to 8°C.

Places of Interest

Within Patna:

- Harmandir Sahib Gurudwara
- Patna Museum
- Botanical Garden and Zoo
- Golghar
- Planetarium
- Khuda Bakhsh library

Around Patna:

- Bodhgaya
- Nalanda
- Rajgir
- Pawapuri
- Vaishali

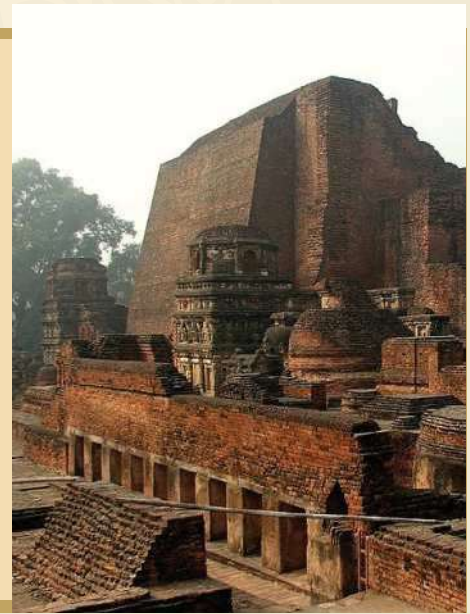

Bodhgaya – The Land of Enlightenment

Bodhgaya, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is the sacred place where Prince Siddhartha achieved enlightenment under the revered Bodhi Tree, transforming into Gautama Buddha. At its heart lies the magnificent Mahabodhi Temple, a symbol of serenity and devotion that draws pilgrims and travelers from across the globe. The town is adorned with monasteries and cultural centers built by Buddhist nations, creating a vibrant tapestry of global spirituality. With its tranquil aura and profound historical significance, Bodhgaya is not just a destination—it's a journey into peace and enlightenment

Nalanda – The Ancient Seat of Learning

Nalanda, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a testament to India's glorious academic heritage. Home to the world's oldest residential university, Nalanda flourished as a global center of knowledge from the 5th to the 12th century, attracting scholars from as far as China, Korea, and Central Asia. The ruins of this architectural marvel showcase expansive monasteries, lecture halls, and stupas, including the iconic Sariputra Stupa. Enveloped in serenity, Nalanda continues to inspire visitors with its legacy of intellectual brilliance and spiritual wisdom, making it a must-visit destination for history enthusiasts and seekers of knowledge.

Pawapuri – The Sacred Land of Liberation

Pawapuri, also known as Apapuri (the sinless town), holds immense significance in Jainism as the place where Lord Mahavira, the 24th and last Tirthankara, attained Nirvana and left his mortal body. The Jal Mandir, a stunning marble temple situated in the middle of a lotus-filled pond, marks this holy site and attracts pilgrims and visitors from around the world. Pawapuri's serene ambiance and spiritual aura make it a must-visit destination, offering a glimpse into Jain philosophy and the timeless pursuit of liberation and peace.

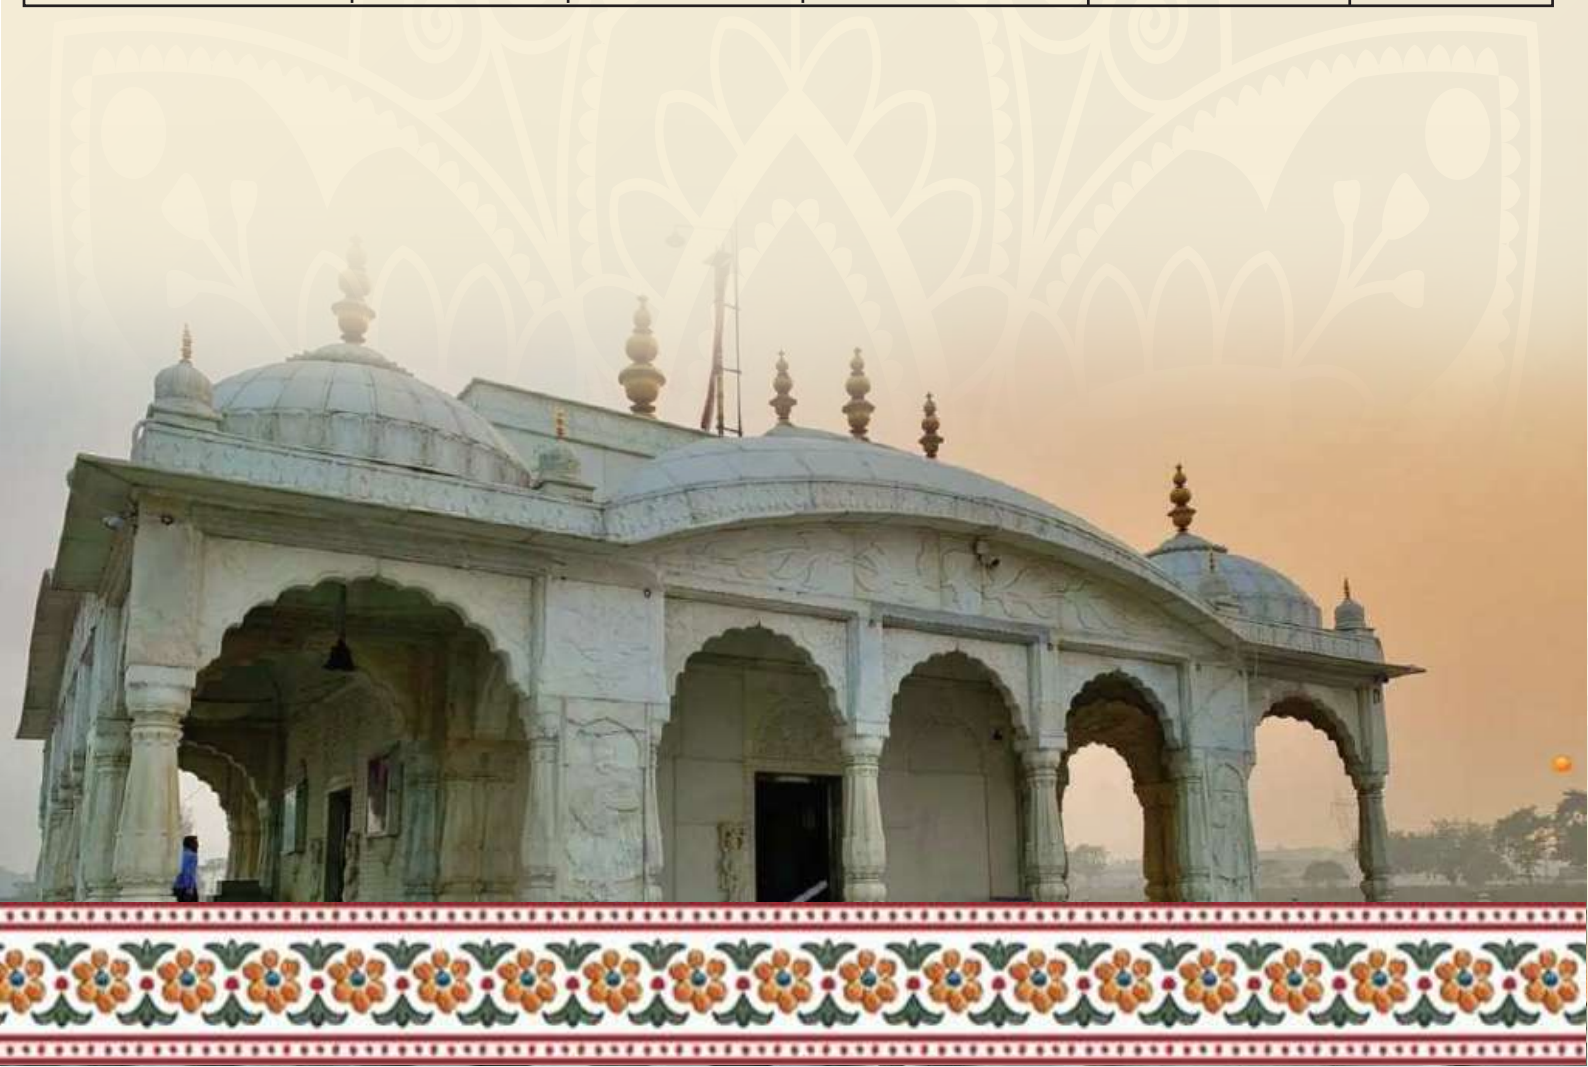

Vaishali – The Cradle of Democracy and Spirituality

Vaishali, an ancient city of immense historical and spiritual significance, is celebrated as the world's first republic and a key site in Buddhism and Jainism. It was here that Lord Buddha delivered his last sermon and announced his Parinirvana, leaving behind the iconic Ashokan Pillar as a symbol of peace. Vaishali is also revered as the birthplace of Lord Mahavira, the 24th Jain Tirthankara. With its rich heritage, serene monasteries, and archaeological wonders, Vaishali offers a profound connection to India's spiritual and democratic roots.
